

Overall Index & Dimension Data for Canada

RANK COUNTRY / TERRITORY SCORE OUT OF 100

43

Canada

57

OUT OF 116

Data Collection Year: 2020

Fielding Dates:
Sample: non-institutionalized women over the age of 15

Survey Mode:
Language(s):
Exclusions: -

Female life expectancy at birth: -
Source: World Health Organization

RANK TOPIC SCORE OUT OF 100

59

Preventive Care

21

Gauges whether women in the past year have been tested or screened for the most frequent, fastest growing and/or the most damaging diseases: high blood pressure, cancer, diabetes, and sexually transmitted diseases.

High Blood Pressure	36%
Cancer	13%
Diabetes	24%
STDs / STIs	11%

28

Basic Needs

87

Gauges women's ability to meet their basic needs in the last 12 months in terms of being able to buy the food their family needed and provide adequate shelter.

Money for food	14%
Money for shelter	13%

27

Opinions of Health & Safety

78

Gauges women's satisfaction with access to quality healthcare care in general, whether they think pregnant women receive high-quality care, and whether they feel safe walking alone at night.

Pregnancy care	90%
General healthcare	75%
Safe walking at night	67%

61

Individual Health

71

Gauges whether women experienced pain in the last day or if they have health problems that prevent them from doing things people their age would normally do.

Health problems	23%
Physical pain	35%

86

Emotional Health

59

Gauges women's daily experiences of negative feelings with: worry, sadness, stress, and anger.

Experience worry	50%
Experience sadness	36%
Experience stress	56%
Experience anger	21%
